“What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?” (Matt.8:27 KJV)

That was the question the disciples asked each other when Christ calmed the storm and we might ask the same question among ourselves. It cuts me in the deepest chambers of my being that we do not really know or fully appreciate this God-Man, Jesus the Christ, the Son of the Most High God!

We are as Isaiah describes in the 53rd chapter verse 5, “We hid, as it were, our faces from him” No, we do not fully understand him, and it defies our imagination to try to describe him. Who can fully portray a man as humble as a pebble on the shore, but strong enough to bring in the tide of the oceans’ mighty breakers? Who can understand his entering the womb of a human being as a pinpoint who also moved mighty mountains with one word?

Who can appreciate the one who leaves the 99 just persons to seek the lost little insignificant lamb, who has gone astray? Why is his love so infinite that he would even notice? What manner of man, when he was in total agony on a cruel instrument of hideous torture, would even entertain the welfare of his mother?

No, my friend, we do not know this God turned man, I say this with tears in my heart and eyes, for we still hide our faces from him in his complete righteousness and holiness! We talk of things we do not comprehend, as though he were common and ordinary! No Language, however elegant can articulate adequately his magnificent greatness, for he is God, the Almighty one, from whom the whole heaven and earth fled away! (Rev.20:11)

No wonder scientists in their natural carnal mind will not entertain the thought of a God who produced everything out of nothing! Yet they profess a big bang theory that makes something out of nothing. I submit to those scientists that he produced a big bang when he breathed into man the breath of life. Moreover, these men, and women can be called the biggest hypocrites of all because they are using the Creators resources, and breathing his air and using the intellect God gave them, to deny his existence!

I am so in awe of him I must conclude again, do we really know him? Does religious organization really know him? Can we tremble in his presence while he is assuring us of his love? Will our finite minds comprehend the infinite?

Those are the questions that only the Lover of our souls can answer!
