

Psalm 1:1-6

Psalm 1:1

Oh the joys of those who do not follow the advice of the wicked... Psalm 1:1 NLT

The advice of the wicked can be heard from every part of the world. Day after day their voices are heard in a constant stream, gushing forth with a “know it all” attitude. Those of the Kingdom of God are ridiculed and laughed about. However, little do they know how little they know.

This is why I admonish you to read the Word daily, for their propaganda goes forth daily. Truth is hard to find in a depraved society.

Stand firm with your armor fully on, and your mind alert. My voice is the one to which you should incline your ear. I have the words to eternal life.

Stand tall and know that you are more than a conqueror, for I paid the price for your deliverance from lies and deception! You need only to know and practice; the truth to set you free!

Amen and amen

... Or (who do not) stand around with sinners, or join in with scoffers. Psalm 1:1 NLT

This is a new day in the spirit realm, and as such should not be taken lightly. For all things are occurrences in this time that are unprecedented in human history. This is the time which was spoken of by the prophets of old. Because of this, the harvest is the largest of all days which have preceded both time and space.

‘Now is the time’, says the Lord, to be serious about your calling. Yes, there are sinners and scoffers, as there were all through human history. These are to have an opportunity to also have the gospel presented to them. There are modern day scoffers in the body of Christ that also need an awakening to the true gospel.

Do the work of an evangelist. Make the most of every opportunity. I am reaching out to your friends and co-workers in the marketplace. I have my arms outstretched all the day long for my wanderers to come home. There they can rest in the cool meadow of my anointing. There they will find a cool and calming effect, free from the decadence of this world. This evil rule of man is drawing to a close and a new age is on the horizon. Hallelujah!

Amen and amen

Psalm 1:2

But they delight in doing everything the Lord wants; day and night they think about his law. Psalm 1:2 NLT

Take delight in the Lord your God, for He delights in you! You were made for His pleasure! Do you think of yourself in this way? If you do, it will give you a whole new perspective on why you were born! His delight is in you, because you are the apple of God's eye! Think about it in meditation and devotion. Do not listen to the lies of Satan, constantly bombarding you with condemnation!

Your Father in heaven gave his only begotten Son for you. When you surrender your life to Him, then you are truly His child. Think about this in the sunshine of the day and in the midnight hour. He cares about everything in your life and takes delight in your conversations with Him!

My heart has heard you say, "Come and talk with me." And my heart responds, "Lord, I am coming". (Psalm 27:8 NLT)

Delight yourself in the Lord, and He will give you the desires of your heart!

Amen and amen

Psalm 1:3

They are like trees planted along, the riverbank, bearing fruit each season without fail. ... Psalm 1:3 NLT

Trees are the planting of the Lord. Each tree has its own attributes. Just as humans are different in personality, so are trees. There are the giant Sequoias', and there are small bushes, and everything in between.

To be as a tree planted by the river of waters is to be staunch and steadfast, willing to bow to the wind, and be drenched by the rain. The tree is not conquered by the elements, for she has great roots anchored in the soil, way below the surface of the ground. She is not bothered by the heat of the day, for she is refreshed by the babbling waters alongside of her.

The tree bearing fruit is, when healthy, growing beautiful green, shining leaves. On the tree are blossoms which fall off, and fruit begins to grow.

So are my people, they blossom and grow and produce fruit that is credited to their account. It is My will that you bear much fruit for the Kingdom of God. Grow and be filled with the fruit of righteousness!

Be filled with the fruit of the Spirit, which is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self control.

Amen and amen

... Their leaves never wither, and in all they do, they prosper. Psalm 1:3 NLT

Prosperity means different things to various peoples. Some think it means great wealth, to others simply being able to pay their bills. True prosperity is of the soul! Did I not speak of this in My word? Yes and more than this, true prosperity is storing treasures in heaven.

The true child of God is dependant on their Father in Heaven for all things, both physical and material.

Their leaves will be vital and green and will produce fruit in their old age. (Psalm 92:14) Their leaves will never wither. Their minds are in tune with the Fathers mind. They are sensitive to his bidding.

Many waters cannot quench the Father's love for his children. His love cannot be measured! Therefore is anything more important?

What can give more pleasure than being in the will of God? Seek your prosperity in the Lord your God.

Amen and amen.

Psalm 1:4

But this is not true of the wicked. They are like worthless chaff, scattered by the wind. Psalm 1:4 NLT

In the last days, wickedness is increasing at an alarming rate. My word prophesied this many centuries ago. Yet the righteous are flourishing and progressing. They are the light set upon the hill. They sigh and cry for the abominations and desolation of the wickedness continually being reported by the media. Truly it is the best of times and the worst of times!

Yet I remain the same and I do not deviate from the course I planned many thousands of years ago, before the world came into being. Man cannot change this and demons in hell cannot change the course which I have chosen for my beloved creation. My Word is true and stands unmovable and unchangeable!

Stand fast and firm in the faith and do not let anyone take your crown! You will reap if you do not faint. I, the Lord God Almighty will perform it! I, who cannot lie will bring it all to fruition!

Amen and amen.

Psalm 1:5

They will be condemned at the time of judgment. Sinners have no place among the godly. Psalm 1:5 NLT

There is no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the Spirit brings life, but the flesh brings death in its final stages. Strive always to follow the Spirit. The Spirit will lead you into all truth.

Sinners are not always aware they are treading on thin ice. Some do not care and are on the precipice of destruction. Some think they can depend on the righteousness of their parents or siblings to get them through. There can be no "coattail Christians". All must answer for their own sins, and they must be covered by the sacrificial blood of Jesus Christ, Savior of all mankind.

Therefore, there are "tares among the wheat" that cause problems for the church. Satan sows discord among the brethren in this way.

Do not be disheartened, but pray the Lord deals with them. Judgment is on the house of God, how much more for those who refuse to repent?

Amen and amen.

Psalm 1:6

For the Lord watches over the path of the godly, but the path of the wicked leads to destruction. Psalm 1:6 NLT

"Lead me into your paths O Lord and let me not stray from them", should be your prayer. For many have started on the path of righteousness and then strayed from it. When this takes place, the Lord your God is mindful of the circumstances. In all cases of leaving the path of righteousness, it is a matter of neglect. Neglecting to pray and stay close to Me, and neglect of the sword of the Spirit, which is My Word in the Holy Bible.

What then is the course that you should take? Run back to me and stay with me, for you are my child, and as I welcomed the prodigal son, I will welcome you also, for I am married to the backslider.

Do not be as the wicked, for they are on the path of destruction. Pray that they turn from their own way to My way. No man can enter the gates of eternal life unless he comes through his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Amen and amen
