Forcefully Advance the Kingdom on Heaven

“For too long the Church has been in a defensive stance against the devil and his powers of darkness,” says the Lord. “Many of you have been attacked and harassed on every side and this has prevented you from moving forward in your service to me. Therefore in this season I am reiterating my victory through the Cross in the lives of my people and reinforcing the disarmament and defeat of the powers and authorities of the kingdom of darkness. I’m calling on the saints to now go on the offense and to advance the kingdom of God. There are strongholds to demolish and territories to take and as a result a great harvest of souls shall be reaped.

Begin moving forward by first dedicating yourselves to casting off every weight and sin that may be holding you back from serving me in this season. As you dedicate yourselves to doing this, the Spirit of God will supernaturally help you to overcome all barriers and obstacles that have been hindering or preventing you from running the race that I have already ordained for you. He will map out the course in which you are to run and reveal to you divine strategies that will not only help you expose works of darkness but also cast them out.

From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven suffers violence. It has been forcefully advancing and only violent or forceful men lay hold of it. Since the kingdom is advancing it is my will that my people advance with it also. Have a violent faith in God and you too will lay hold of that which is from the kingdom of heaven.”
