It's Harvest time!

We in this nation are blessed. In spite of the economy, and negative occurrences, still we have a free enterprise system, are free to practice our religion according to the dictates of our conscience, and so much more.

Why are we able to enjoy this land in which we live? Our forefathers paid the price. There is always a price to be paid for freedom. In other words, freedom isn't free.

Now we are faced with terrorism and wars and rumors of wars. The greatest Emancipator that ever lived foretold these times in which we live. It is as the author said in "The Tale of Two Cities", "It was the best of times, and it was the worst of times." It is as the old cliché states, some see the glass as half empty, and some see the glass as half full.

How should we as Christian's view the days in which we are living? They are the days of the Harvest, the time of the greatest Harvest known to mankind. Never before has there been a population such as we have presently, no never in history! So we are told by our Maker to look on the fields, the fields that are white with Harvest! Can we grasp the significance of this? Are we going to sleep during the greatest revival ever to hit this planet? Are we going to listen to a false gospel that lulls us to sleep at the "Midnight Hour?"

Let us all report for duty in this time of great ingathering, and answer the call of the "Shepherd and Bishop of our souls." We are all laborers for the Kingdom Of God!
