Leadership

Somewhere inside of every thinking person, there is a leader. Some choose to ignore it and they become followers. All may be followers in the beginning, but there is a time to begin leading. Parents must lead their children, and in turn may produce children that are prepared to step out and lead in their schools and in their jobs.

A true leader must be concerned for the welfare of others. Some in positions of authority are aware of their employee's potential and so begin to encourage and groom them. Many a successful person can tell you of a mentor or an example of one who inspired them to achieve goals that they set for themselves.

Christ was the greatest leader while on earth and still the greatest from heaven. He said in Mark 10: 42-45 NLT

So Jesus called them together and said, "You know that in this world kings are tyrants, and officials lord it over the people beneath them. But among you it will be quite different. Whoever wants to be a LEADER among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be the slave of all. For even I, the Son of Man came here not to be served but to serve others, and to give my life as a ransom for many."

If we want to lead, we must follow the greatest leader of all, Jesus Christ. We can read about his life and follow his example. He washed his disciples feet, he taught them for 3 1/2 years, and then laid down his life for all humanity. Follow the Leader of leaders and you will have true success!
